Following Jesus with…

As people of faith guided by the Confessions of the Church, we often profess our faith with the Apostles’ Creed. Each phrase contains deep meaning and one in particular is “the Communion of Saints.” On the one hand, it refers to the Eucharist, the meal we share at Christ’s table with our sisters and brothers in the faith. On another hand, it refers to the community of saints, the great cloud of witnesses who have run the race before us (or alongside us or after us). Saints include each person coming forward to receive the bread and wine, some known by us personally and some who are famous, whose writings or works inspire others in their own discipleship.

Last year during Lent, we set aside time during each midweek service to hear the ways members of the Co-op follow Jesus in their chosen vocations and daily lives. This year during Lent, we are going to learn about the more famous saints who have taught countless people a deeper understanding of the love of God shown to us in Christ Jesus. I hope you are able to join us on Wednesday evenings as we explore the lives of these saints and how they help us remain connected with the Communion of Saints today.

March 4 at Salem: John, the Beloved Disciple – the fourth Gospel arose from a community shaped by love and affirmation of a mystical union with Christ in the face of turmoil and persecution.

March 11 at Hill: Desert Fathers and Mothers – as Christianity moved from the margins of society to the center of an empire, devout men and women sought to reclaim the essence of their beliefs and practices by leaving the empire and going out to the margins, namely, the desert.

March 18 at St. James: St. Ignatius – as the Roman Catholic Church was changing in the aftermath of Martin Luther’s ignition of the Protestant Reformation, Ignatius sought ways to help people connect with prayer practices and actions that would deepen their personal and corporate faith life.

March 25 at Salem: Dietrich Bonhoeffer – in the lead-up to World War II, Bonhoeffer founded a seminary designed to train pastors in the ways of Christ that were not impacted by the national German-Christian Church supported by the Nazis and ended up being martyred for his work.

April 1 at Holy Trinity: St. Teresa of Calcutta – in 1950 Mother Teresa started the Missionaries of Charity in a very poor section of Calcutta, India where the workers took vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience and she taught people to change the world through small acts of love.

Interested? I hope so! May we find ways to follow Jesus with these saints!

Parking Lot Paving Donations

We ask you to please consider making a financial donation to help offset the costs of the repaving of the parking lots this past Fall.

The repaved parking lots have enhanced the appearance of the neighborhood, and have provided church members with additional parking spaces within the Ninth street lot and additional handicap parking.

There is no wrong amount of money to contribute.

Deadline to submit information for the April Newsletter is Monday, March 16th!

The family of Edward Roman from the Alliance Congregation would like to extend their gratitude for the many prayers, payment of their rent and donations of gift cards by members of Salem. Mr. Roman, the main breadwinner in their family, had a sudden cardiac issue recently. His family, after initially being told he might not make it through the night, is relieved that he has improved and is now at the Hyman Caplan Pavilion for rehabilitation. God is good!

Dear Women of Salem -
Thank you so much for the snacks. College is going well, thanks for the encouragement.
Sincerely, Glenn Miller

To the Women of Salem -
Thank you for sending the goodie box to me! It was very thoughtful & definitely put a smile on my face!

Thank you for everything and continuing to help us grow in Christ. God bless,
Garrett, Megan and Jaxon Zimmer

Thank you for my birthday cards for my 83rd birthday. I also want to thank Deb DiPasquale for delivering my fruit basket. We had a nice chat.

This is to express our thanks for the cards, phone calls, flowers and visits during my recent hospital stay.
While I was recuperating, I realized it was not just your kindness that helped me to bounce back. It was your prayers.
Jenni and I just wanted you to know how much your friendship means.
Very appreciatively, Duke Snyder

Thoughts of Spring

Thinking on our Spring clean up-

Would like people to come out of the closet...

Need to know everyone who uses our closets. Both the front closet near stage and supply closet near kitchen. Would like to work on organizing them. Would like to have input from all people who use these closets. Don't want to assume that I know all who use these spots...(you know where that leads!)

Please email me with what you and your group store in each closet and how often you use what you store. Also, your thoughts on what would make these two storage areas work better would be helpful!

Thanks for your help, Linda E. lebling62@gmail.com

Whatever your task, work heartily, as serving the Lord and not men -Colossians 3:23
